“The class is highly effective in improving one’s parenting skills. I would strongly advise both parents taking the course if possible. I have become more self-aware of how I am parenting and I consciously use the tools learned from the class. We are having fewer struggles. Vickie was Excellent.” Michael G. Chang, M.D.

“The entire class was an Aha moment. Vickie is an amazing teacher who makes the class interesting and fulfilling. The demonstrations were very effective. I would absolutely recommend to any parent. You will be shocked at how effective PD is – I would like to have another week. My husband and I better understand our child and she feel empowered”. Heather Strakele

“The PD role plays helped me to see scenarios from my child’s perspective. I would definitely recommend to other parents as we all deserve to love parenting our children; this helps. We have less power struggles and we have become more respectful of one another.” Tamara Broughton

“The role plays in each session really helped as they were situations I face daily. Now I feel I am able to handle it in a more positive manner and with confidence. I am more aware of the importance of being kind while firm and role modeling (not losing it). I am happy about the changes; it has been awesome. I was led through a confident seven week journey I won’t forget.” Sindhuja Vinodh

“This class has been a game changer for my family. I am a visual learner and the interactive class format brought it to life for me. I am more confident and my children are more confident and independent. I loved the sense of community and easy sharing that happened between the facilitator and parents.” Anonymous

“The class could not have better! I wish all parents could get the book and take the class. It has made me feel more confident and in control. It gave me so many practical ideas to use. I would never have taken my three boys and friends on vacation alone without having these tools! I became a better Mom and that feels so good”. Karen Lynn

“The role plays made the techniques come alive. I would 100% recommend this to others as it is not difficult and the children are so responsive to the techniques. It has made me identify more readily with my children’s emotions... I loved the parenting/peer advice sessions at the end.” Kathleen Hornik
